

GFT Test

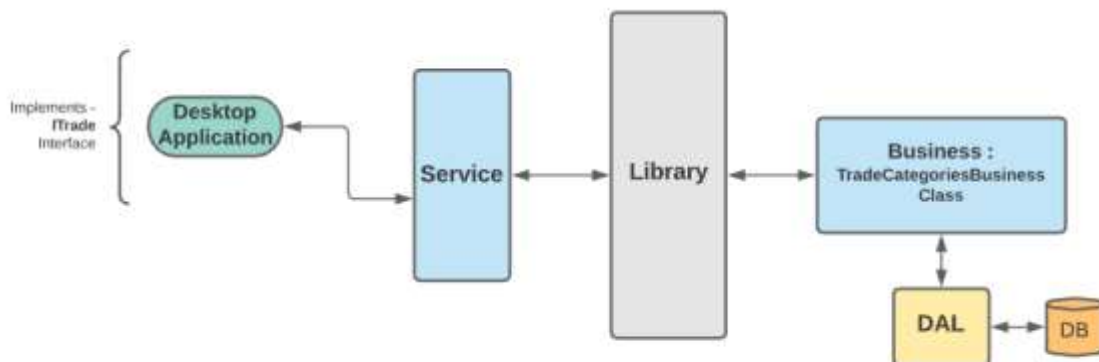

Database Model:

The database was created to maintain all domains. The relationship table “TradeCategory” allows you to add, change and remove settings:

Application Sctructure:

This structure was created to provide the solution for any type of customer (services, web applications, desktop applications). The library that is responsible for the business is separate where it orchestrates all operations related to the business.

*Instructions to execute de solutions are in: GFT_Test/Instructions directory.